- Even if you are coming for Saturday only, we still need you to register!

Why is this retreat important to Skyline?

We call church, "family," because that is what the church is designed to be. We say, "We depend on each other," because that is what we were created to do. But sometimes we adopt a pace of life that leaves us spread really thin and standing beside people on Sunday that we don't really know.

Our hope and prayer is that this church-wide retreat will be the space for God to grow new relationships, to renew and strengthen old relationships as we journey through life together. We pray that this weekend will be a time of renewal to draw closer to God.
